Class Officers

Richard Merkel is a quiet cool collected personality. Dick's character shows he was a born leader by his ability to think fast and make definite decisions, thus he was elected senior class president. His friendly smile and greetings were displayed in his daily life at Lincoln.

Richard Walker, better known as "R. J." adds the note of humor to this quartet. As vice-president his ability to make people laugh and feel at ease is a great asset to the class as a whole and to the student body of Lincoln. He is an industrious worker and always willing and ready to help out.

Joan Felice, secretary of the class, is a girl with a magnetic personality. Her friendly smile will make friends of all those who come in contact with her. Jody is a main spark of the class and keeps the records with the utmost efficiency.

Victoria Murphy, a girl with a quiet, charming, diplomatic manner was elected class treasurer. Her extremely high character and companionship has enriched the lives of her classmates to unfathomable depths.

Coach Carl G. Harris

Carl G. Harris will long be remembered at Lincoln High, the school which he served for eleven years preceding his sudden death, September 25, 1947.

His first five years at Lincoln were spent in the coaching field and, as a result, he was affectionately called "Coach" while continuing as teacher of science and hygiene.

The standard of good sportsmanship he held as an ideal toward developing character in the youth with whom he was associated was highly effective because of his excellent example.

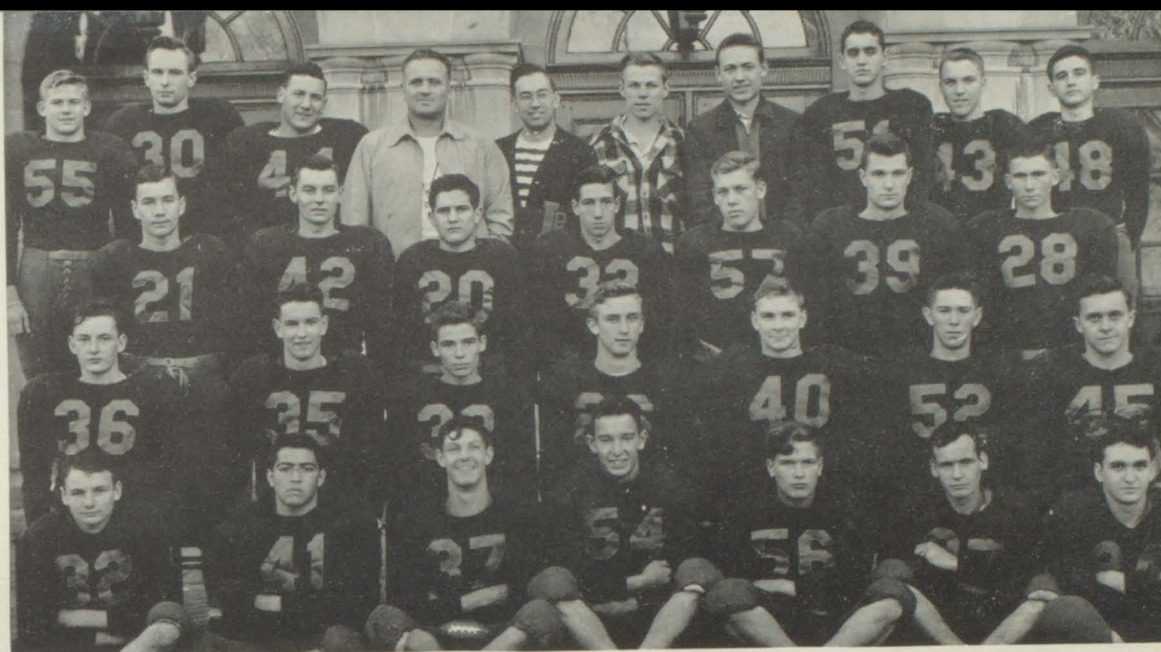

"Coach" will be remembered for his friendliness and his cheerful attitude toward all. His influence will continue through the years.
